

Running Quantum algorithms on a neutral atom processor

Mark Saffman

University of Wisconsin-Madison

I will present recent results implementing hybrid quantum algorithms on a neutral atom processor. Using a 2D array of cesium atom qubits we have run VQE and QAOA algorithms. Opportunities and challenges for scaling into a regime of quantum advantage will be discussed.